

Say no to immoral, harmful cuts

Disabled activists who work with and advise Church Action on Poverty say the further dismantling of crucial welfare support threatens to impoverish them, and flies in the face of Government promises and evidence. It is immoral, harmful and based on misleading spin.

Stef Benstead, Mary Passeri and Sydnie Corley have joined with other disability activists all over the country to call for the threatened cuts to be cancelled.

In December, these activists met the minister for disability, Sir Stephen Timms MP, who said disabled people would be at the heart of the Government's actions. That hasn't happened.

“When governments make choices that clearly – or even potentially – harm poor people, the church should say so.”

(Stef Benstead, author of Just Worship: Worshipping God By Living Just Lives)

Join thousands of others opposing these cuts. Ask your MP to urge Stephen Timms to honour his pledge. Scan the QR code or visit bit.ly/immoralcuts

"THE GOVERNMENT SAID THEY WOULD PUT DISABLED PEOPLE AT THE HEART OF EVERYTHING THEY DO, BUT INSTEAD THEY'VE SHOVED US TO THE VERY EDGES."

